JOHN REID

THE WATCHERS

www.steve-burt.com

The fourth book in the DCI Steve Burt murder mystery series from author John Reid.

THE WATCHERS – PLOT SUMMARY

Sometimes it isn't just good police work that catches criminals. Sometimes you just have to watch them.

This is the strategy DCI Steve Burt uses when presented with two different and equally complicated cases simultaneously. One is an unofficial favour to an ex-colleague involving the theft of gold bullion from the Bank of England. The other is a baffling case of multiple murders masterminded by greed. Steve follows a trail of misleading clues and blind alleys involving suspected terrorism, kidnapping, conspiracy and international intrigue.

To solve the cases he puts his career and his future with the Metropolitan Police in jeopardy by deliberately disobeying direct orders.

WHAT READERS ARE SAYING

“...the drama is riveting and the suspense intriguing. For the cerebral reader, the smallest detail is attended to as multiple concurrent events converge into an exciting conclusion.”

“With fascinating, quirky characters, their personalities bring the story to life, making them endearing and memorable for the reader”

“There's something so appealing and enjoyable about this author's books”

“John's no nonsense style makes for easy but compulsive reading, in this book the tension and complexity develop on every page. I simply could not put it down.”

“Fans of thrillers and mysteries from the likes of James Patterson or Mary Burton will love DCI Steve Burt and his rag-tag group of crime solvers.”

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

JOHN REID

John Reid is a new crime fiction author, bringing a fresh style to the genre and inventive plots that keep the reader in suspense until the very end of each book.

Starting his working life as a student lab tech in Dundee with the NHS was short-lived as the mundane daily routine drove John to join the army on a 3 year Short Service Commission and get the adventure he craved. With tours completed in Northern Ireland and the Middle East he certainly got that.

A distinguished and successful business career followed that culminated in managing the UK portfolio of a Geneva based investment house.

Now living in Portugal with wife Liz, when not typing with a single finger John can normally be found on the golf course, chasing Andre Rieu across Europe or watching motorsport, most probably Formula 1.
